

Checklist

What you'll need before contacting us about your multi-dwelling unit development:

Development/scheme plans – include separate connections needed for common services like fire or elevator alarms

☐

Total number of dwellings requiring connections – specify how many connections are for residential, retail or commercial

☐

Floor plans

☐

Cross section plans

☐

Common services trench plans (for the building lead-in)

☐

Services area plans

☐

Other utility plans

☐

On-site contractor details

☐

Any other information that will help us best understand and service your development

☐